

Name: _____

Date: _____

Long (i) as y

The long (i) sound is most often represented by the letter y when it comes at the end of words, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'why, w ... h ... y'

If you tell someone why, you give them a reason.

why why

If you are upset, you might cry.

cry cry

You dry things with a towel.

dry dry

If you fry something, you cook it in oil.

fry fry

You should always try to do your best.

try try

The sky can be clear or cloudy.

sky sky

A bird can fly by using its wings.

fly fly

If you spy on someone, you watch them in secret.

spy spy

If someone is shy, they do not talk much.

shy shy

If you apply (ap/ply) for something, you ask to join.

apply apply

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Long (i) as y

The long (i) sound is most often represented by the letter y when it comes at the end of words, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'why, w ... h ... y'

Try to spell each word without looking at it.

If you tell someone _____ you give them a reason.

If you are upset, you might _____.

You _____ things with a towel.

If you _____ something, you cook it in oil.

You should always _____ to do your best.

The _____ can be clear or cloudy.

A bird can _____ by using its wings.

If you _____ on someone, you watch them in secret.

If someone is _____, they do not talk much.

If you _____ for something, you ask to join.

Now check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.