ll words

The sound (l) is represented by the letters ll when it comes after a short vowel.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'bell, b ... e ... l ... l'

When the bell rings you need to line up.

.....

Gail fell over Neil's foot.

.....

If you are not ill, you are well.

.....

A pill is a another name for a tablet.

.....

A till is where your money goes in the shop.

.....

Gail has a doll that she plays with.

.....

The words roll, poll and stroll are naughty red words that belong to Neil and Nina because the letter o makes its long sound.

A poll asks people what they think about something.

If you roll a ball, you push it along the floor.

.....

A stroll is a slow walk.

.....

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.
