ue words

The long (u) sound is usually represented by the letters ue when it comes at the end of words, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'due, d ... u ... e'

If a baby is due, that means it should be born soon.

due due

A queue is a line that you wait in.

queue queue

A cue is the stick that you use to play pool.

cue cue

If you rescue (res/cue) someone, you save them.

rescue rescue

The value (val/ue) of an item means how much it is worth.

value value

If you issue (is/sue) something, you give it to someone.

issue issue

If you continue (con/tin/ue) something, you keep doing it.

continue continue

Nina and Gail always argue (ar/gue) with each other.

argue argue

The words few and dew are naughty red words that belong to Nina and Neil because they use the letters ew to represent the long (u) sound at the end of words, not ue.

A few means not many.

few few

Dew is water that you find on grass early in the morning.

dew dew

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.
