ore words

The sound (or) is usually represented by the letters ore when it comes at the end of words, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'more, m ... o ... r ... e'

Would you like more?

_____

The score in the game was 1-0.

_____

A store is another name for a shop.

_____

Waves from the sea crash on to the shore.

_____

Neil tore Gail's dress.

_____

Some people snore when they sleep.

_____

What do you do before (be/fore) you go to bed?

_____

The words below are naughty red words that belong to Nina and Neil because they use the letters oor to represent the sound (or) at the end of them.

Please shut the door on your way out.

_____

If someone is poor, they do not have much money.

_____

The floor is what you stand on when you are inside.

_____

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.
