wor words

When the letter w comes before the letters or, it changes the sound that these letters represent, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'word, w ... o ... r ... d'

Each word is made up of letters.

_____

How much work have you done?

_____

A worm lives in soil.

_____

The world is huge.

_____

Is it worth getting into trouble?

_____

Neil is the worst behaved boy in his class.

_____

The word were is a naughty red word that belongs to Nina and Neil because it does not use the letters wor. The words sword and worn are naughty red words because they use the letters wor differently to most words.

Were you in school on Monday?

_____

Have you worn your new shirt?

_____

A sword needs to be sharp.

_____

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.
