

Name: _____

Date: _____

Soft g

The letter g nearly always represents the sound (j) when it comes before the letters e, i or y, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'gem, g ... e ... m'

A gem is another name for a jewel. _____

Some people put gel in their hair so that they can style it. _____

A gerbil (ger/bil) is a small animal, a bit like a mouse. _____

An angel (an/gel) has wings and a halo around its head. _____

Ginger (gin/ger) is a type of spice. _____

Magic (ma/gic) tricks make you wonder how they were done. _____

If something is fragile (fra/gile), then it is easy to break. _____

A giant (gi/ant) is a very big person. _____

If someone is gentle (gen/tle), they are careful not to hurt you. _____

A giraffe (gi/raffe) is a yellow and brown animal with a long neck. _____

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Soft g

The letter g nearly always represents the sound (j) when it comes before the letters e, i or y, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'gem, g ... e ... m'

Try to spell each word without looking at it.

A _____ is another name for a jewel.

Some people put _____ in their hair so that they can style it.

A _____ is a small animal, a bit like a mouse.

An _____ has wings and a halo around its head.

_____ is a type of spice.

_____ tricks make you wonder how they were done.

If something is _____, then it is easy to break.

A _____ is a very big person.

If someone is _____, they are careful not to hurt you.

A _____ is a yellow and brown animal with a long neck.

Now check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.