

Name: _____

Date: _____

ar words 2

The sound (ar) is nearly always represented by the letters ar, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'carton, c ... a ... r ... t ... o ... n'

A carton (car/ton) is a cardboard container for milk or fruit juice.

carton carton

In a cartoon (car/toon) all of the characters are drawn.

cartoon cartoon

A market (mar/ket) has stalls that sell things.

market market

A partner (part/ner) is someone who you work with.

partner partner

Harvest (har/vest) time is when farmers pick fruit and dig up vegetables.

harvest harvest

A carol (car/ol) is a song that people sing at Christmas.

carol carol

Regard (re/gard) is another word for look.

regard regard

You wear a harness (har/ness) when you go rock-climbing to stay safe.

harness harness

Marmalade (mar/ma/lade) is orange jam.

marmalade marmalade

A barcode (bar/code) is what a person scans at the till to get the price.

barcode barcode

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.

Name: _____

Date: _____

ar words 2

The sound (ar) is nearly always represented by the letters ar, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'carton, c ... a ... r ... t ... o ... n'

Try to spell each word without looking at it.

A _____ is a cardboard container for milk or fruit juice.

In a _____ all of the characters are drawn.

A _____ has stalls that sell things.

A _____ is someone who you work with.

_____ time is when farmers pick fruit and dig up vegetables.

A _____ is a song that people sing at Christmas.

_____ is another word for look.

You wear a _____ when you go rock-climbing to stay safe.

_____ is orange jam.

A _____ is what a person scans at the till to get the price.

Now check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.