er words 2

The sound (ir) is sometimes represented by the letters er, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'berth, b ... e ... r ... t ... h'

A berth is a parking space.

A verse is one part of a poem or a song.

Convert (con/vert) means change.

An expert (ex/pert) in a topic knows a lot about it.

Conserve (con/serve) means protect.

A person (per/son) can be a man or a woman.

If you deserve (de/serve) something, you have earned it.

To be alert (a/lert) means to be awake and on guard.

If something is permanent (per/ma/nent) it is around for good.

If soil is fertile (fer/tile) that means that it is good for growing plants in.

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.
