ir words 2

The sound (ir) is sometimes represented by the letters ir, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'swirl, s ... w ... i ... r ... l'

If the wind moves in a swirl that means it blows in a circular way.

_____

A mouse will squirm if you try to catch it in your hands.

_____

_____

If you confirm (con/firm) something, you agree to it.

_____

_____

A circus (cir/cus) has clowns and trapeze artists.

_____

_____

Circular (cir/cu/lar) means in the shape of a circle.

_____

_____

To shirk your jobs means that you try to avoid doing them.

_____

_____

A smirk is a smug smile.

_____

_____

A quirk is an odd or strange thing about something or someone.

_____

_____

To whir around means to move around quickly.

_____

_____

Infirm (in/firm) means weak because of old age or sickness.

_____

_____

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.
