

Name: _____

Date: _____

-us words

The sound (us) is usually represented by the letters us at the end of nouns of more than one syllable, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'focus, f ... o ... c ... u ... s'

To focus (fo/cus) on something means to concentrate on it.

focus focus

A person's status (sta/tus) is about how important he or she is.

status status

A virus (vi/rus) can cause disease, such as flu.

virus virus

If a worker gets a bonus (bo/nus), he or she gets some extra money.

bonus bonus

Lemons and limes are types of citrus (ci/trus) fruit.

citrus citrus

A census (cen/sus) finds out information about the people in a country.

census census

The chorus (cho/rus) of a song is the part that is repeated.

chorus chorus

Surplus (sur/plus) means more than is needed.

surplus surplus

If there is consensus (con/sen/sus) that means that everyone agrees.

consensus consensus

Mushrooms are a type of fungus (fun/gus).

fungus fungus

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.

Name: _____

Date: _____

-us words

The sound (us) is usually represented by the letters us at the end of nouns of more than one syllable, like in the words below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'focus, f ... o ... c ... u ... s'

Try to spell each word without looking at it.

To _____ on something means to concentrate on it.

A person's _____ is about how important he or she is.

A _____ can cause disease, such as flu.

If a worker gets a _____, he or she gets some extra money.

Lemons and limes are types of _____ fruit.

A _____ finds out information about the people in a country.

The _____ of a song is the part that is repeated.

_____ means more than is needed.

If there is _____ that means that everyone agrees.

Mushrooms are a type of _____.

Now check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.