ss words

The sound (s) is made by the letters ss when it comes after a short vowel in words.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'class, c ... l ... a ... s ... s'

Gail loves to be in class.

class class

Sheep eat grass.

grass grass

Neil was so close he could not miss.

miss miss

Do you want more or less?

less less

Nina makes Gail feel stress.

stress stress

Mum is the boss in our house.

boss boss

Gail never makes a fuss.

fuss fuss

The words gas and bus are naughty red words that belong to Bart because they have only have one s after a short vowel sound.

Gas can be used to heat a house or to cook with.

gas gas

A bus can take a lot of people.

bus bus

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.
